

Kaslo Food Security Newsletter August 3, 2010

1. Pancake Breakky
2. THANK YOU OneFest!
3. Cedar posts for sale
4. Bulk Buying Hay

1. Pancake Breakfast

Went off without a hitch, thanks to all of the amazing volunteers who put in time! Val Koenig on the pancakes, Andy Shadrack cooking the eggs, Greg Lay serving, Lynn VanDeursen at the door, and a huge list of others taking care of all the details: A special thanks to the following:

Jesse, Lynzee, Kaye, Donna, Susan, Dan, Fern, Jamie, Karen, Maggie, Janet, the Legions Ladies Auxillary....I know I am forgetting someone!!!

We are able to add around $200 to the coffer for Food for Families, our non-barrier food cupboard. Thank You everyone!

2. THANK YOU OneFest

We are so amazed at the generosity of our youth! One Fest donated a whopping $1600 to the Kaslo Food Security Project! They requested this money be used for the Tool Library so we will be gladly adding all of the items we have been hoping to find sponsors for very soon! A grain mill, fruit press, oat flaker, juicer, oil press and some items for our food resource library.

Thank YOU to everyone who helped and guided One Fest especially Neil and his amazing visionary abilities!

3. Cedar Posts for sale

Peter MaCallister has cedar posts and rails for sale, cured and peeled. Posts 1$ a foot and rails .50 a foot. Delivery available for 35$ in Kaslo Area. Please contact Peter directly at 353-7173.

4. Bulk Buying Hay

Tracey and Shamis Burrel are looking into a large order of hay from Creston. Prices are yet to be determined, but they would like to see if anyone else would like to order. You can contact them directly at: rangergoat7@hotmail.com

And a reminder that Food Hub is open to the public Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursdays 10-1pm.
